*Profiles of spirits eager to know their own flights; Profiles of hunters who seek to slay their fears;
Profiles of children who have been taught to shed
their protective shells and learn to build new walls around their vulnerabilities.*

Serving to outline the very natures of the Cambridge Students, this year the Pinnacle honors the many unique and multi-colored personalities which add a special brilliance to our small, yet sturdy, student body.

This brilliance cannot be measured or estimated as can the light from a distant star because so many different personalities are part of that light's source, only in a very special place can the energy of 282 bursting colors be detected, a place that only the heart may know.

Silent sea

Tell this to me:

Where are the children that we Used to be?

At picture shows
Where nobody goes
And only the heart can see

Starry Skies

Soft lullabies

Where do they go when
Their melodies die

Starry Skies

To a day
Far, far away
That only the heart may know

Friends we knew

Follow us through

All of the days of our lives

Love we shared

Waits for us there

When our wishes forever reside

Falling tears

Memorie's mirrors

Where are the summers

Oh, where are the years?

Falling tears

Carried far

To a wandering star

That only the heart may know.

Starry Skies

Where do they go when
their melodies die?

To a day

Far, far away

That only the heart may know.

It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
You have sung to me in my aloneness and I of your longings have built a tower to the sky.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over and it is no longer dawn.
The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned turned to fuller days and we must part.
If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream,
we shall build another tower to the sky.
